IN Kentucky this and indicate the wheat crop is beyond accident; corn has suffered somewhat from the drouth, but is now improving; the oat crop is promising; tobacco has suffered in some localities, but generally speaking is a healthy crop.

JUDGE J. G. O'CONNOR of New York, who fought in the Union ranks, in a private letter to a friend in Washington says: "The 'backbone' of the Democratic party here is broken. The Bolshevists among our people [the free] from the Democratic party is something wonderful, and a cause of much alarm to the old supporters of the party which was and, though erroneously, to even them." Judge O'Connor says that Hough succeeded in beating one and tired of politics. He is opposed on one the Democratic party in the campaign in the interest of Bryan and Logan.

SUPT. JOHNSTON was interviewed recently at Atlanta on the charge of defaulting the Government. They were stopped yesterday on the request of Secretary Carlisle, who is in Europe.

THE New York board of assessors have decided that suitable houses shall be paid to the amount of $1.5. Mitchell, the well-known war correspondent, on their arrival in that city from Bulgaria.

Ships and quarantine inspection officers have been invited to attend.

AT a meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Labor party in New York yesterday it was resolved to postpone the proposed convention of the party at Chicago to Sept. 1. This action was taken, it was stated, because the letters of acceptance of Gen. Bidlack and Gen. Cleveland have not yet appeared, and as their stands it would be impossible to take intelligent action.

THOMAS STATES CLEVELAND, Mayor of Riverside, is a staunch to Secretary Carlisle's ears, says there is a material improvement in that city and in Corona as far as the orange outlook is concerned. The number of persons afflicted at Riverside fell from 60 during each to 40 Sunday, and at Corona from 40 to 15. The epidemic has assumed a virulent form at Arlington and Gilman.

SENATOR MASON of California, in an interview with a Tribune correspondent at Long Beach yesterday, said there was not a shadow of doubt that California, Oregon, and Nevada would cast their electoral votes for Bryan and Logan. Mr. Mason's attitude on the Chinese question, his advocacy of the dignity of American labor, and his unique Americanism made him exceedingly popular in the Pacific States. The Republicans in California have just called and cast registered, and thousands of Democrats would vote with them next fall. Senator Mason regards the situation in the San Joaquin Valley. The young men are enthusiastic and are pushing the organization of campaign clubs vigorously.

THE Chicago gasless markets were quite active yesterday, and generally quite strong, but by almost, which was in good speculative demand on foreign orders. All compared with Saturday gain for near delivery ranged from $1.00 higher, half July again higher, month of corn ruled, about 1 cent higher, oats 1/2 cent higher, and corn 1/2 cent higher while rye and barley were unchanged.

PRELIMINARY returns of the election of the peasant Lutheran with the Fourth ward (Chicago) last week show that 18 persons died. The Lutheran was mixed exceedingly, and many were clearly accused after. The contagion and cold made their way the last time with in the cities, which began to visit some other. The city's basis water was also to hold over half hour on Wednesday, and those who were fortunate enough to get in had delight of with bathing those who afterwards tried to get in. The actual were sickening to the extreme.

IN an interview with a Boston reporter yesterday, Gen. Butler attributed the importance of Mr. Bryan, the Chairman of the Democratic party of New York, about his (Butler's) action, and intimated that Bryan was in front of him. He also said that he would continue at the residence of the Democratic and anti-Monopolist parties, and thought that no friends should be organizing in the interest rather than withdrawing the ranks. Gen. Butler said significantly that he had not been a candidate to put control but had refused to nominate him.

AT the meeting of the County Board yesterday the Finance Committee reported against the payment of $500 to Senator Buckley for acting as Commissioner of Arbitration, and also recommended an investigation of the expenditures to the office. Mr. Buckley says that the action of the board is a matter of personal spite, as he never asked for the position. The full effect a resolution to investigate the Committee of Supervisors as to their duties in reference to property assessed or undervalued, which, after a protracted struggle, was adopted by a majority vote.

Liverpool, July 21.—Henry M. Stanley, the African explorer, arrived at Liverpool this afternoon. He was received by England yesterday by the people of Liverpool, who turned out in large numbers to welcome the great traveler. Mr. Stanley was met at the station by the Lord Mayor, the Sheriffs, and a number of prominent citizens, and was escorted to the Town Hall, where he was presented with the freedom of the city. Mr. Stanley, in response to the address of welcome, said he was glad to be back in England. He had been away from England for four years, and during that time he had been constantly engaged in exploring the interior of Africa. He had found the Congo River flow for 1,000 miles through a country of surpassing fertility, and he had established stations along the Congo River from its mouth to Stanley Pool. [Loud cheers.] He had found the Congo people to be industrious, but they were much in need of the Christian religion. He thought the Congo would be a good field for the employment of the capital of the Congo River. He considered the trading community of the country in the vicinity of the Congo River the most enterprising in Africa. Mr. Stanley, continuing, said he had left Major Barttelot in charge of the Stanley rear column, and he hoped that he would be able to bring the column safely through the country. He had left Major Barttelot at Yambuya, on the Aruwimi River, on the 15th of June, 1887. He had left Yambuya with 389 men, and he had expected to meet Major Barttelot on the way to Stanley Pool. He had left Major Barttelot with 126 men. He had expected to meet Major Barttelot at Stanley Falls, but he had not done so. THE DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN.

Chairman John Cleary and Mr. Cumming of the State Central Committee accompanied by Mr. Crosthwait and three other Springfield politicians, came up to Chicago yesterday to the afternoon Messrs. Cleary, Cumming, Quirk, and Lee held a consultation at the Palmer House, while Crosthwait went off on private business. The object of the Springfield visitors was to secure Chicago as the place for the Democratic State Convention, which is to be held some time in August. The selection of Chicago was left to the discretion of the Committee, and the fact that the Democracy of Cook County have a majority of 20,000 in the State Convention, which will be composed of delegates from all parts of the State, was considered a strong argument in favor of Chicago. The Springfield delegation, however, did not like the idea of holding the Convention in Chicago, and they were afraid that the Democracy of Cook County would not be able to control the Convention. They also feared that the Democracy of Chicago would not be able to control the Convention. They also feared that the Democracy of Chicago would not be able to control the Convention. They also feared that the Democracy of Chicago would not be able to control the Convention.

The Democratic State Central Committee met at the Palmer House last night, and the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Democratic State Central Committee of Illinois, in view of the fact that the Democratic party of Illinois has a majority of 20,000 in the State Convention, which will be composed of delegates from all parts of the State, and that the Democracy of Cook County have
